

Lecture on Mosaics — Miss Margie Kronneck from the Mar-G Studio of Mosaics and Ceramics in Redondo Beach gave the Alpha Delta Pi South Bay Alumnae Association the benefit of her training in Bavaria in her presentation of the techniques used in mosaic work, at the first meeting of the year, held last night. Miss Dorothy Fallon and June Lentz assisted her with the demonstration.

Mrs. G. Richard Reinhardt, president, urged all alumnae to contact her regarding joining the group's future activities.

Mrs. John McKenna and Mrs. C. Albert Smith, hostesses, served coffee and cake to the members assembled at Mrs. Reinhardt's Hollywood Riviera home.

and Mother Mary Lucy at the recent meeting at the home of Mrs. Thomas F. McNeil, 3009 Carson St., general chairman. Msgr. O'Dwyer called the meeting to start an Auxiliary fund campaign for hospital equipment and furnishings.

Yukon PTA Prepares Fall School Schedule

Various PTA committee meetings held during the fall and summer months have readied many plans for the new Yukon school PTA in north Torrance.

Meeting in the home of Mrs. Elmer Vandergriff, chairman of the budget and finance committee, a tentative budget has been prepared and upon approval by the board it will be presented to the membership for adoption at the first meeting.

Members of the standing rules committee met in the home of Mrs. Wendall Morgan, parliamentarian, and selected a set of standing rules also to be presented to the association for adoption.

Membership chairman, Mrs. Frank Thomason and her committee met recently and plans are well underway for the membership drive commencing Oct. 1.

Mrs. Wendall Towell, program chairman, and committee members met throughout the summer months and have outlined the eight programs of the year choosing the theme, "The Complete Circle, Home, School and Community."

Local Artist Now Exhibiting at Co-op Gallery

Mrs. Dale Sexton, local artist, is now represented at the one-man show at the Artist's Co-op Gallery, 121 South Pacific Ave. in Redondo Beach.

Mrs. Sexton, well known as a portrait painter, is showing some of her newest work, which is in a transitional phase leaning toward the semi-abstract.

The artist's work has been shown in many exhibitions, among which are included City Hall Tower Shows, Greek Theater Shows, Women Painters of the West Exhibitions, Santa Cruz Statewide Exhibit, National Orange Art Show, County Museum, Palos Verdes Gallery, Palos Verdes Security First-National Bank, South Bay Community Arts Association regular exhibit and many others locally and in the South, where she has won many awards.

Mrs. Sexton teaches art classes in the South Bay Adult School as well as private classes in her studio.

Her affiliations include membership in Women Painters of the West; Board Member, South Bay Community Arts Association; Board Member, South Bay Civic Symphony.

The exhibit at the Co-op Gallery will continue through Oct. 10. Gallery hours are: Tuesday through Friday 5 to 9; Saturday and Sunday 1 to 9.
